Before and knowingly selected to be Republicans in that chivalrous community.

THE fact that the municipal authority of the Capital of the Nation is practically under the control of the enemies of the Republican party is beginning to attract attention all over the country. It is true that the politics of the District of Columbin have ceased to be, if they ever were, of any interest to the people at large; but the idea that our local government has gradually become a nesting-place for Democratic politicians wherein Democratic devility is constantly being hatched for outside use constantly being hatched for outside use does not set well upon the stomachs of good Republicans North or South. We can explain to them, however, that much of this political diabolism is due to the fact that our District Commissioners have been weak enough-a weakness bordering on immorality-to trade offices within their gift for votes in Congress upon appropriations and other questions effecting our local interests.

E. J. Duncian, of Alabama; O. Hopkins and daughter, E. W. Huntington, New Orleans; D. J. Moran, Chicago; William Wakeman and D. B. Bourbonism is so respectable, you know, and there are one or two very wealthy Bourbons in our midst to add to its respectability in the estimation of tuft-hunters; so it is easy and pleasant, with a Democratic majority in Congress,

THE RESULT IN MAINE.

It is conceded on all hands that what THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN contended for on the morning after the election, and which some doubters regarded as premature, has really transpired in Maine. It is possible that DAVIS may yet be declared elected by the popular vote; but whether that shall be so or not, we have the legislature in both branches, and that assures the election of DAVIS as Governor. So "all's well that ends well." Now the cannon can roar, the engle can scream and the people can huzza with perfect propriety, for Maine is redeemed, and if any tender-footed Republican is sensitive as to the amount of noise that may be made over the result, let him put cotton in his ears or hide his head under a proton, made to an economical for rejoicing with exex ling joy, and the people should cry out and shout in the exuberance of their emotions. The loyal heart should gush and slop over with joy at the developing prospect of preserving the country from the ravages of Bourbonism and the supremacy of Rifle Clubs and shotgun polities. In Maine we have accomthe Connell boom began to operate at plished all that had been looked for or hoped for, except that the popular vote is not as overwhelmingly Republican as it should have been nor as it undoubtedly will of her milkmen who adulterate their goods be when we next meet the enemy down in with water.
